LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—Barbour's Business college opens next Wednesday.

—We wish once more to call the attention of our advertisers to the notice at the head of the column.

—Ernest Conzenbach, the electrical engineer, is constructing electric light plants at Whitefield and Lancaster.

—The arrival of "General Prosperity" has made itself felt at the scale works by increased orders for scales, especially from the middle West where the times have been unusually hard for the past two years.

—Tuesday's storm came at a rather unfortunate time for all the merchants were ready for a good business circus day. The storm kept many at home and also lessened materially the gate receipts of the circus.

—At the third annual convention of the State Catholic Order of Foresters in St. Albans, which closed Wednesday, it was voted to hold the next meeting in St.
Johnsbury. J. J. Eagan of Montpelier was elected chief ranger.

—The Crystal Spring Manufacturing Company of Barnet have declared a semi-annual dividend of 30 cents a share.
Much of the stock of this concern is owned in St. Johnsbury and the corporation have done a larger business than usual this year.

—There will be an excursion to Portland and Old Orchard next Sunday over the Lake road. The train leaves here at 2 a. m. and returns Monday at 1.30 a.
m. The fare to Old Orchard and return is $2.25 and to Portland $2. Excursionists have about 12 hours at either Portland or Old Orchard.

—The following are the letters advertised for the week ending Aug. 21:
Mrs. Constance G. Blodgett, Mrs. Anna
S. Proul, Miss Bell Stearns, Mrs. W.
Stone, Miss Florence E. Wilson, C. G.
Bovee, Hal Curtis, Alay Farnen, J. H.
Kempson, Sidney M. McCurdy, care Mr. Bartlett, W. J. Tipton.

—An enjoyable musical was given at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening. Alfred H. Brooks presided at the organ, B. Frank Harris accompanied him twice with the piano, Frank H.

Brooks sang two solos and Miss Shufelt gave a solo with Miss Boynton accompanying on the violin.

—Let every bicycle rider remember the lantern parade next Tuesday evening, weather permitting, at 8.15. The parade will form at the north end of Railroad street and pass through the principal streets, wheels to have Japanese lanterns hung upon them. Ice cream and cake will be served after the parade.

—The employees of the Lake road and their invited friends will hold their annual excursion on Lake Champlain Saturday. They will go over on the mail Saturday night, returning Sunday night or Monday morning. The steamer Maquam has been chartered for the cruise, and the dinner will be eaten at Plattsburgh.

—The St. Johnsbury band give a concert on Court House square tonight.
The band boys have engaged W. A. Barrington to lead and drill them the rest of the season and he will be with them through the fair. There are now 24 players in the band and their weekly concerts are enjoyed by a large number of townspeople.

—The gradual increase of infectious diseases in our village suggests the necessity of a careful examination of the plumbing of one's house. If one does not feel competent enough to make the examination it is often money well invested to employ a first-class plumber. Also it is well to use great care in drinking the river ice.
Water can be kept cold by keeping it in the refrigerator and all danger of infectious germs will then be avoided.

—The second shoot between the Lyndon-ville and St. Johnsbury Gun Clubs was held on the range of the St. Johnsbury club Saturday afternoon. St. Johnsbury was the second time winner. Fifteen pigeons were thrown for each of the 10 shooters, St. Johnsbury getting 37 out of the 75 and Lyndonville 26. Charlie Emerson, P. S. Clark, H. C. Wilson, David Tute and Mr. Hinman were the Lyndonville team, and Fred Beck, Dr.
Harry Bullard, Dr. E. H. Ross, Dr. G. H.
Smith and Harry Belknap the St. Johnsbury team.

—The combination lock to the second door of the Merchants bank vault got out of order some way Monday night and the door could not be opened Tuesday morning. A machinist was called in but failed to accomplish anything.
An expert was then telegraphed for and Wednesday morning an arrived from Worcester, Mass., accompanied by an assistant. From Wednesday morning until late Thursday afternoon three and four men were at work on the doornight and day. The door had to be taken nearly to pieces before it could be opened.
It will now be quite a long job to get it together again. The expert in charge of the work is Fred Blake of the Blake Timelock and Bank Vault Inspection Co. of Worcester, Mass.

PERSONALS.

Lawyer Slack is visiting his father in Cavendish.

visiting his uncle, C. F. Weeks.

J. W. Sault is spending a 10 days' vacation in St. Albans and vicinity.

William B. Atwood has typhoid fever, but is getting along very comfortably.

Rev. M. Atwood will supply the Free Baptist pulpit at Hardwick next Sunday.

Mrs. G. H. Smalley and son, Howard, of Burlington are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Prescott and son Edgar have been visiting Mrs. L. L. Kendall.

William H. Ward has gone to Buffalo to attend the national G. A. R. encampment.

Charles W. Sprague and wife of Boston are visiting his father, W. W.
Sprague.

Mrs. Eugene Smith and son Ralph of Laconia, N. H., were visiting in town last week.

Miss Winona Snow, of the telephone exchange at Burlington, is at her home here for a few days.

Miss Sadie P. Cameron leaves this week for Burlington, Iowa, where she will spend the winter.

Harry Bingham, Esq., of Littleton, N. H., and Wm. C. Todd of Atkinson, N. H., were in town over Sunday.

Capt. Edward Griswold and Herbert E. Moore are attending the races of the grand circuit at Readsville, Mass.

Judge Henry C. Belden of Minneapolis is stopping here for a few weeks and receiving a cordial greeting from his old friends.

Harry Belknap and Fred Beck represented the St. Johnsbury Gun club at the state shoot in Montpelier Wednesday and Thursday.

Representative and Mrs. Clarence W.
Plummer and P. L. Kendall, Academy '86, all of Lakeport, N. H., are the guests of Mrs. L. L. Kendall.

Miss Laura Watson, principal of Abbott academy, Andover, Mass., and a former teacher at the Academy, is visiting in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brooks and Miss Tyler gave a most enjoyable reception to some of their friends at Under-cliffe on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Loomis and children from Paint Rock, Texas, and Mrs. Chester Loomis and children from Englewood, N. J., are the guests of Mrs. D. D. Patterson.

Miss Florence S. Allen of Warren, R. I., Mrs. George F. Allison and Miss Nellie P.
Monroe of Providence, R. I., who have been enjoying a visit in this town, returned to their homes Tuesday.

Dr. Walter J. Aldrich is the winner of a valuable gold ring for the largest number of words made out of the word "editors." Dr. Aldrich got nearly 400 words. The prize was offered by the publishers of the Jennett Miller Magazine.

John H. Parlin, who will be pleasantly remembered as cornetist in the St. Johnsbury band a few years ago, is now connected with Eastman's orchestra. C. F.
Eastman, formerly of Manchester, N. H., has organized a new orchestra of eight pieces with headquarters at Portsmouth.

Dr. J. Delton Fancher, general agent for E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, was here yesterday looking after the company's advertising. Dr. Fancher has been the company's general agent for 17 years and has traveled through every state in the Union and been to Alaska four times.

Rev. Frederick B. Richards of Broadway Tabernacle, New York, was here over Sunday and started Monday for the White mountains on his wheel. St.
Johnsbury people will be interested to learn that this church hopes to get Rev.
Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus of Chicago for their pastor, and that he is steadily recovering from a serious illness.

G. W. Sargent, who is here this week as advance agent of Raymond's Comedians, was here in 1884 and brought out the Battle of Gettysburg under the auspices of Chamberlin Post. This was the first of these successful plays that have been given here, and during the week Mr.
Sargent has renewed acquaintance with a number of veterans. He is a printer of 40 years' experience, having learned his trade under that noted journalist, Samuel Bowles of the Springfield Republican.

Bradley Newell, the Vermont beaver, will be at the St. Johnsbury House over Sunday. This summer he has been engineer, captain and crew on the steamer Priscilla, a boat plying on the silvery waters of Lake Sadawaga, with a passenger capacity of 12 or 15 persons. This boat formerly run on Lake Rapouda, and was bought for Mr. Newell this season. He runs the engine, collects the fares and does everything connected with running the boat for revenue and pleasure.

E. P. Young, foreman of the Argus and Patriot at Montpelier, and Ned Field, clerk in the office of the National Life Insurance company, were the guests of E. E. Piper last Sunday. They made the trip on their wheels, coming via Wells River and returning through Danville.
The former took a header while coasting down hill near Danville on the return trip, but fortunately escaped injury. His wheel, however, did not fare so well, but with the assistance of a crowbar he managed to put it in condition to get home.

W. C. T. U. Notes.—There will be a meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Y. M. C. A. hall next Tuesday afternoon to elect delegates to attend the state convention at Essex Junction, Sept. 28-30. All members requested to be present.

Members and all others wishing to attend the tree planting at the grave of Madame Willard at North Danville, Monday, are requested to leave their names at Mrs. J. H. Drew's, 16 Main street, or Mrs. S. H. Brackett, 23 Main street, so that provision can be made for conveyances from here to North Danville.

A Coincidence.—As a St. Johnsbury man and his friend from New York were feeding peanuts to the elephant circus day the St. Johnsbury man remarked that it reminded him of De Wolf Hoppers' elephant song from "Wang." The New Yorker said he had heard the song but had never seen Mr. Hopper. The other man happened to look at another elephant who was being fed from a bag of peanuts and quickly replied, "Well, there is De Wolf Hopper feeding an elephant right by your side." And sure enough there was the prince of comedians who came down from the St. Johnsbury House that afternoon to "see the elephant."

School Notes.—The public schools open for the fall term Monday, Sept. 6.
Supt. Jones and his wife arrived here Tuesday morning. They have spent the summer at Potsdam, N. Y.

The list of St. Johnsbury teachers is now complete. In addition to those previously announced, Miss Helen R. Harriman has been engaged for the school at Pierce's Mills, and Miss Beatrice S.
May at Four Corners.

State Fair.—There is every prospect of a big fair at Howard Park, Burlington, for the four days commencing Aug. 31.
The entries of horses, cattle, sheep and swine are larger than usual, and the demand for space by exhibitors very brisk. The management has prepared an excellent programme for each day.
There will be a grand diamond bicycle tournament with exhibitions of fast riding to beat the state and track record of 2.10. Running, trotting and pacing horse races. Foot races and athletic sports. The railroads will carry passengers at excursion rates.

Congregational Club.—The summer outing of the Passumpsic Congregational Club will be held at Newport next Wednesday. The ladies of the Congregational church will serve dinner in the church at 1 o'clock; Rev. C. E. Fay of Newport will give an address of welcome and Prof. Henry Fairbanks, the president of the club, will respond. In the afternoon the club and their friends will enjoy an excursion on the Lady of the Lake.
Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Priscilla quartette. The fare from St. Johnsbury is $1.35 with 50 cents for dinner and 50 cents for the boat ride.
The train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10.45 and the return can be made on any of the evening trains. These summer outings of the club are always enjoyable and this one will be no exception to the rule.

Sherbrooke Exhibition.—The official programme for the Sherbrooke fair has been issued, and can be obtained at this office, at all railway stations, post offices, general stores, etc. We would advise our readers to look over it carefully, as the programme is very complete, and tells exactly what is to take place each day, so that the public can judge for themselves the best days to attend. The programme also gives information as to special railway service on all the different lines, by which it will be seen that special excursions are run from all directions to Sherbrooke, in some cases on two days, and on others during the whole week of the fair. The railway arrangements and accommodations have never been better, and with the very low rates secured, and the magnificent attractions offered, there can be no doubt that Sherbrooke will next week see a greater number of visitors than it has ever seen before.

Only One Arrest.—The police force was strengthened Tuesday with the addition of several deputy sheriffs in the regulation uniform. They were on the lookout for pickpockets that were reported to be following the big circus.
But it was a dull day for their business.
The only arrest was made about five o'clock in the afternoon when Fred Ivers began to show indications of being badly drunk and wanting to create a row with some people at the depot. He was advised to go home but refused and was finally taken to the police station.
State's Attorney Taylor being present a hearing was commenced at once, but Justice Worcester decided that the prisoner was too drunk to have a proper understanding of the proceedings and continued the case until Monday. David Brown, an uncle of the prisoner, furnished bail for his appearance. If the weather had been good and the crowd as large as anticipated the police might have found more going on in their line.

Church News.—Rev. L. H. Elliot of the Vermont Bible Society presented the work and needs of that organization at Grace Methodist church last Sunday.

Rev. F. Barrows Makepeace of the North Congregational church, Springfield, Mass., preached two able sermons at the North church last Sunday. In the morning his text was "Thy kingdom come," and in the evening he drew instructive lessons from the character of Job. Dr. Heath is expected back next Sunday.

Rev. Dr. F. E. Dewhurst of Indianapolis preached a strong sermon at the South church Sunday morning upon St.
Paul's words upon charity. The sermon was replete with historical illustrations and was enjoyed by a large audience.
Mrs. George W. Kyburg of Brooklynsang a beautiful offertory solo. The pulpit will be supplied next Sunday by President H. T. Fuller of Drury college, a former principal of St. Johnsbury Academy.

It is expected that the pulpit of the Methodist church will be supplied next Sunday by one of the White Ribbon women from the Lyndonville camp meeting.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.—The men's meeting next Sunday will be held in Association hall. Mrs. S. Louise Barton of Boston will give an address to young men on "Decision of Character," and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. Mrs. Barton has a wide reputation as a successful gospel and temperance lecturer and is a woman of rare intellectual ability. As a speaker her eloquence is magnetic, while her statements of truth are clear and the illustrations pertinent.

The board of directors will hold their meeting for August on Saturday evening.
The annual meeting of the association will take place on Tuesday evening, Sept. 14, and the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary for the election of officers will be held in the afternoon of the same day.
Michael J. Riley of New York, "the bowery evangelist," will speak to men in Y. M. C. A. hall on Sunday, Sept. 5.

Caledonia County Fair.—An attractive advertisement elsewhere calls attention to the county fair on Sept. 14, 15 and 16. The management have secured more attractions than ever before and if the weather is good there will be the biggest crowd ever seen at our fair. Speedwell Farms of Lyndon Centre will send down their fine French coach horses.
T. G. Bronson of East Hardwick will enter his splendid herd of Jerseys and the prospect of a fine exhibit in other lines is good. Caledonia county industries will also be well represented. The St.
Johnsbury Shoe Company will have an exhibit and the Crystal Spring Company of Barnet and Dairy Association of Lyndon-ville will both have large exhibits.
Anyone who has not received a premium list can obtain one by writing Arthur F.
Stone, St. Johnsbury. Read the advertisement for further particulars and come to the Caledonia county fair on Sept.
14, 15 and 16.

The Circus.—The great Adam Forepaugh & Sells Bros. circus that exhibited here Tuesday is as good if not better than any ever seen in St. Johnsbury.
The usual large circus crowd was not in town, owing mainly to the weather which started bad at the very beginning of the day. Probably 5,000 people witnessed the afternoon performance and not more than 500 the evening performance. The street parade was witnessed by a large crowd of people and pronounced magnificent.

Every performer in the circus programme is an artist and a number of their feats are new to the circus goers of this vicinity. The trick bicycle riding on the old high wheel, the aerial bar evolutions, flying trapeze performers, juggling, acrobatic work, riding, etc., was all of the highest order. The most interesting part of the whole performance were the trained animals, especially the trained seals. The dancing elephants went through a quadrille in good time to the music and did other things at the command of their trainer. The baby elephant, ponies and Sacred Burmese cattle gave an interesting exhibition in one of the rings. The clowns were numerous and kept up their funny work throughout the performance to the great delight of the audience. It was a great show.

The usual concert was given and was well-attended. The side show also received its share of patronage. The most prominent part of the side show was the giant, who claimed to be 8 feet 6 inches tall.

Raymond's Comedians.—This company will open a week's engagement at the Stanley Opera House, commencing Monday, Aug. 30, presenting a repertoire of high class and refined comedies in-terpersed with bright and pleasing specialties. This organization has enrolled among its members some well-known Boston favorites, and their repertoire is entirely new, the majority of their plays being their own property and produced only by them. The company numbers 12 people, all of them singers, and they make a feature of entertaining their audiences with good music and catchy dances.

In presenting the above company of players, the management wishes it distinctly understood that the members of same have been carefully culled from the best recognized companies of the theatrical profession—who, wishing to pass a few pleasant weeks among the mountains, have banded themselves together to while away the hot summer and at the same time amuse those who may attend their performances.

The repertoire is as follows: The Doctor. A Cheerful Liar. Lucky Strike.
East Lynne (In Deference to the Ladies).
My Mother-in-Law. Great Scott.

The players are: Gittus Lonsdale, late E. S. Willard's Co.; Osborne Searle, late Frohman's New York Co.; G. W. Murray, late When London Sleeps Co.; Thomas English, late Boston Museum Co.; Joseph Thayer, late Wild Goose Chase Co.; Hilda Vernon, late starring in Irma Co.; Louise Pierce, late Mrs.
John
